… Respondents.

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE P.S.NARAYANA

WRIT PETITION NO.14110 OF 2006

ORDER:

Heard the counsel.

The writ petition is filed for writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in proposing to shift the polling booth from Rajanapalem village to Tantadi by issuing notice dated 8.7.2006 as illegal, arbitrary and contrary to the constitutional provisions and consequently direct the respondents not to shift the polling booths from Rajanapalem to Tantadi village, Atchutapuram mandal, Vishakapatnam district and to pass suitable orders.

The arrangement of polling booths and the shifting of polling booths, these aspects depend upon several local situations. Certain grievances had been expressed in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition. This Court is not inclined to express any further opinion relating to the factual aspects narrated in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition. However, it is stated that on 16.5.2006 itself representation was made. It is also stated that a unanimous resolution also was made on 2.5.2006.

In view of the said facts the first respondent is directed to consider the representation dated 16.5.2006, in accordance with law, and pass appropriate orders within one week from the date of receipt of a copy of the order.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.
